

Final Project prep Site Map

CAS 206 Justin Meas

Purpose:

- This website will show case ducks.
- Breeds, colors, living conditions, survival, etc.

I am making this site for people to get a better understanding of ducks. For people to learn a thing or two about ducks.

Desired accomplishments:

- My goal is to show off ducks. There are many different types of dogs in the world but this page is to show off the various types of ducks.

This site will include a lot of photos with reasoning. Its purpose is to inform and show how a duck lives.

Target audience:

- Anyone and everyone, ages 4-100
- Kids, teens, adult teens, adults, elderly, both male/female.

Addressing opportunity:

- This website is targeted to provide informative information about ducks. This website can reach to inform people about caring for ducks as close as any other pet and not just another type of animal.

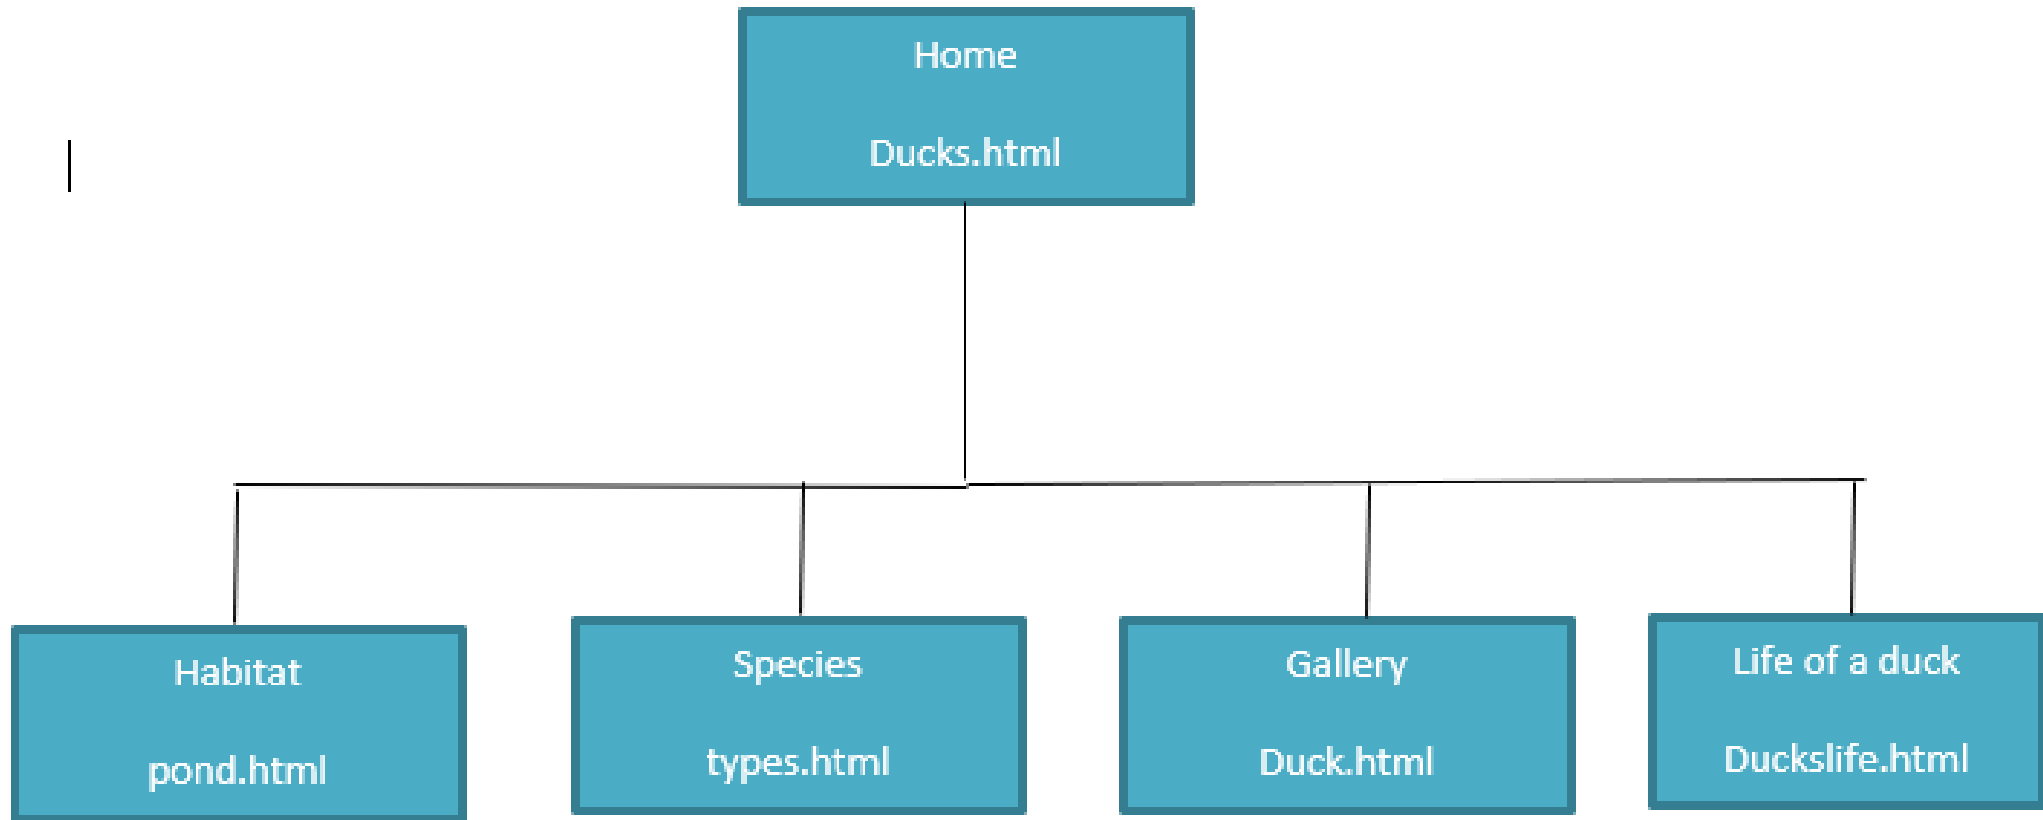

Content:

- Readable font
- Informative Description with Youtube links and images
- Many pictures of ducks and pictures relating to duck characteristics.
